ORC/HCA ACTIVITIES IN JANUARY

Working meeting "Next 10 years – B&H, state for youth"

Last week, the Western Balkans Democracy Initiative brought together young people from all parts of the country to discuss how Bosnia and Herzegovina can be a state of the future and an opportunity for its young people.

We were joined by leaders from the fields of science, art, business and IT sector, entrepreneurs, innovators, but also future political leaders, who once again showed us that the future of BiH lies in its young people.

With Richard Graham, chairman of the Westminster Foundation for Democracy Committee, the young people discussed turning obstacles into opportunities, as well as different ways to make good changes in society.

The message of young people is clear to all of us - although the current opportunities for their development are not favorable, young people still want to rely on knowledge and resources already available to create the future of BiH.

On behalf of ORC Tuzla, Malik Sakić participated in the working meeting

We thank our partners from the Embassy of the United Kingdom, the Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, the Mosaic Foundation and the Regional Cooperation Council for joining us on this occasion, presenting their work and sharing experiences in working with young people.

CAT Bosnia and Herzegovina

During the month of January, we continued with our regular activities within the project "CAT - Bosnia and Herzegovina".

Our cats continued to delight the public on social networks with many memes, invitations to seminars, positive stories about young people from Bosnia and Herzegovina.

If you still do not follow our cats - we invite you to do so at Facebook, Web Portal, Instagram and Youtube channel.

Moji kidnaperi me vraćaju kući nakon 2 sata, jer sam ih oprao pričom kako je nacionalizam samo paravan za koruptivnu političku elitu..

“Be the solution, not the pollution”

The Youth Resource Center Tuzla has started the implementation of an environmental project called "Be the solution, not pollution."

Project "Be the solution, not the pollution!" is a project whose focus will be on ecology and the small steps that each of us can do every day to save our planet Earth, the only home we have. The fact is that young people are neither familiar nor interested in ecology, and they are not aware of how much power each individual has when it comes to reducing waste, reducing global warming and the like.

We will hang out together at 4 activities:

1. Placing eco posters in Tuzla.
2. Distribution of gift packages to the citizens of the city of Tuzla.
3. Social games day (activity where the only obligation is to have a good time together without spending electricity).
4. Action of cleaning the Slana Banja promenade in Tuzla.

The project is funded by the Tuzla Community Foundation.

Visit of the Deputy Ambassador of the United Kingdom to BiH to ORC Tuzla

British Deputy Ambassador Neil Kavanagh visited Tuzla in January to discuss youth organizations, independent media and security partners on interrelated challenges such as corruption, livelihoods, the environment and resilience to political extremism. He talks about these topics with young people from the Youth Resource Center Tuzla.

Anna Lindh Fondacija Bosanskohercegovačka mreža

Preparations for "Tuzla freedom festival"

As part of the preparations for the Tuzla Freedom Festival, which will be held in Tuzla under the auspices of the Anna Lindh Foundation from March 10 to 13, a working meeting of partners; Dis Teatar Mladih Banja Luka, Vitez City Youth Theater and Tuzla Youth Resource Center, was organized in Vitez on January 28 and 29.

The technical details of the festival, the criteria for participation in the festival, and other details were agreed at the meeting. In addition to this Festival, through questionnaires and ten focus groups in 10 BH cities with young people from Bosnia and Herzegovina, an analysis of the situation in which young people find themselves in these turbulent situations will be made, and recommendations for cultural groups during the pandemic. The analysis will be translated into English and published in our newsletters.

TUZLA FREEDOM FESTIVAL 2022.

The festival is primarily intended for young people from the ALF BiH network, but also for other young people in BiH and the region, who will have the opportunity to submit their audio / visual / stage creations through a public call: plays up to 15 minutes (within this and two best with focus group), short videos (documentaries, feature films, cartoons ...) up to 1 minute, exhibitions (drawings, photographs, memes, audio spots, cartoons), all other forms of audio / visual / performing arts and creations.

The festival will be of a competitive nature, and prizes are provided for the first three places. The theme of the festival is: The issue of intercultural dialogue in BiH, as well as the fight against hate speech, extremism, discrimination, etc. The selectors of the festival will, based on their topic, choose the works that will be shown during the festival. Expect more about the festival itself, as well as a public invitation in the next few days.

We are adults and it is not a joke!

At the end of January 2004, after the withdrawal of the international organization hCa from Tuzla, on the same principles, goals and focuses, with the Vision of a better and fairer society, more equal opportunities for youth in BiH, especially from smaller and isolated environments, and together with young people Networks in BiH, the Youth Resource Center (ORC) was officially registered in Tuzla.

We have 18 years of activism, volunteering, campaigns, youth meetings, non-formal education, socializing, meeting young people throughout the region, traveling, working on ourselves and working with peers.

Today, we are 18 years old. We became an adult, but we do not mind continuing on. This is another year we are entering in the desire to be the most visible and loudest young people again, but also to give other young people as much media space and credibility and invite them to join us in this "trench" fight for youth rights throughout BiH.

Fearing that we will leave out someone, and also because we would need a lot of space, we will not list anyone individually. We simply want to thank all our partners, associates, donors, volunteers, colleagues, government officials, businessmen and everyone else who “forged” these 18 years. THANK YOU!

ORC AND HCA TUZLA REGULAR ACTIVITIES

During January, we worked on maintaining and developing communications and coordination within the Youth Network of Bosnia and Herzegovina (www.omladina-bih.net). As part of that, we distributed information of interest to young people and youth activism in BiH on a daily basis to the mailing list of the network (posta@omladina-bih.net), but also to other addresses in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the region. We corresponded with organizations and individuals interested in the work of the network, answered inquiries related to certain activities, education and other information related to youth activism in BiH. Also, our project team continued to apply for projects.

HCA/ORC PLANS FOR FEBRUARY 2022

Continuation of activities within the partnership project „Youth Rule of Law (YroL)”, whose holder is the Association „Ja BiH u EU” from Sarajevo, and is supported by European Union. The project will last 30 months. In January and February, we plan to organize activities at Mok up trials, which we will inform you about in our newsletters.

Continuation of fundraising for new activities.

Continuation of implementation of the project „Budi rješenje – ne zagađenje”, financed by the Youth Bank of the Tuzla Community Foundation.

Start with the activities at the new CAT Project

Preparations for the youth festival "Tuzla Freedom Festival" (Tuzla, March 10-13), as well as the distribution of questionnaires and focus groups in 10 BH cities, the results of which will be used to analyze the situation of young people in BiH. The analysis will later be published in our newsletters, but also distributed in 43 countries, members of the Anna Lindh Foundation.

And, with Gods blessing the beginning of the realization of the reconstruction of the attic above our offices, which we received from the city of Tuzla for use, and the opening Tuzla Activist Center. So far, we have managed to clean and dispose of garbage that has accumulated in the attic for decades (approximately 4-5 tons of paper, wood, sheet metal, glass and other garbage), but also found many photos of Tuzla and activities of sports clubs and youth in the period 1960-1985. We plan to make an exhibition of these photos in the near future. We also received some equipment and furniture for furnishing the space from IOM - BHRI. We warmly thank them on this occasion for their donation! We are currently in the phase of resolving the Urban Consent. After that, a building permit follows and we start slowly with raising funds.

Daily workshops

The youth organization Svitac continued with daily interactive and online activities. The younger participants did age-appropriate creative and educational things, with the help of local and international volunteers. This month they did: snowballs, butterflies and stars made of paper and cotton wool, letters F, G, I, J, H, K and drawing objects starting with one of these letters. They also learned about New Year's celebrations around the world, writing and sending New Year's greeting cards. In English and German they learned how to say words related to winter and winter sports. The goal of these educational activities is for children to develop imagination and to express their creativity using various materials, and to develop motor skills, memory, a sense of tolerance and respect for others and adopt good behavior. All workshops were implemented with an educational visual method with pictures and video.

Age 13+ participated in discussions / workshops on topics: human rights, volunteering abroad, differences in dialects in Germany and England, Christmas and New Year celebrations in different countries and the impact of influencers on young people. In this way, we want to provide young people with a safe and neutral space in which to express their opinions.

In English and German workshops, they worked on practicing everyday communication and grammar, and we helped with homework and school projects.

SVITAC Guitar workshops

Participants rehearsed new things: "Etude in A minor" (D. Aguado), "Tordion" (Pierre Attaignant), "Grand Slam" (Charlie Christian) and waltz in A major (F. Carulli).

SVITAC Radionice sambe

The group worked on one composition, in order to improve the arrangements and certain nuances. The working name of the composition is "Die Schulter von Fraust des Zweiten". Also, there was time for short improvisations at the end of each workshop.

SVITAC International Education Day

International Education Day is celebrated on January 24 around the world under the auspices of UNESCO. This day is a symbol of strengthening the role that education has in creating global peace, development and progress. The youth organization Svitac marked the International Education Day with the participants in a creative workshop, discussing what the school of their dreams would look like. Having friends nearby, being able to jump on a trampoline during class and learning many different things - these were just some of the things children would like to have at this school. The workshop was held in the premises of the Youth Center Brcko District.

The continuation of all activities of the Youth Organization Svitac is planned for February.

UMiD applications open until February 6!

Public call for participation in the seventeenth generation Learn, Think and Act! UMiD training for youth leaders closes on Sunday, February 6, 2022 at 11:59 p.m. In other words, there are only a few days left to sign up and be part of a life-changing training.

OBUKA

Budi i ti dio obuke koja mijenja život!

UMiD 17

Institut za razvoj mladih KULT

MLADI.ORG

This is how UMiD is described by students from the first sixteen generations. UMiD training is an incubator of young leaders active in society. Training that allows you to become an example and driving force in your community and participate in solving youth problems, but also to prepare for your own career, gain new skills, meet new young people like yourself, improve and socialize.

HOW DOES UMiD CHANGE LIVES?

UMiD is a one-year training consisting of seven two-day modules and a summer school, and covers topics that are necessary for you as a young person to be an active member of society and a true leader in the community. During the UMiD training you will learn how to encourage your peers to get involved in solving youth problems in the community, how you can convince decision makers and other participants in your community to give concrete support to young people, how to behave one day when you enter business the world and many other useful things.

LEADERSHIP IN PRACTICE?

During the training you will have the opportunity to learn about the topics we have listed, and the training will encourage you to think of yourself, peers, community and civic activism as a tool for change. So that the knowledge gained during the training would not remain only at the level of theory, you will have the opportunity to apply it in practice and to act in your local community with the aim of improving the position of young people. Implementing a local civic initiative (LCI) that will make a difference in your community. You are planning a local civic initiative together with young people from the community, and the entire implementation process will be advised and financially supported by the Institute.

EXPENSES?

If this invitation sounds tempting to you and you are one step closer to applying, but you are not sure who will pay for it all, please don't worry about it! The Institute bears the costs of transportation, accommodation, food and materials you use during UMiD training.

HOW TO APPLY? VERY SIMPLE!

If you are interested in participating in UMiD training, you meet the above criteria, you want to start and change things in your community, and you have an idea how to do it, you need to make a video that will answer the question "What can I do today to make my community better for youth tomorrow?"

Think about the specific problems and challenges you and your peers in the community face. When you recognize the most important problems and needs, think about how you can solve them and tell us in video format. The video should not be longer than 3 minutes.

If you think that you will express yourself better with a text or some other form, feel free to do so. The text should not be longer than one A4 sheet in Times New Roman font, size 11.

You apply for the training via the electronic application form which can be found HERE within which you will submit to us your work (video or text) on a given topic. In the form you need to list two recommendations of people we could contact (name, surname, position and contact).

You can apply until Sunday, February 6, 2022, 11:59 p.m.

If all this sounds too good to be true and you would like to hear the experiences of other young people who have gone through UMiD training, you can do it HERE.

If all this sounds too good to you, but not everything is completely clear to you and you have questions, come to our online info session and find out everything that interests you. The online info session will be held on Monday, January 17, 2022 at 5 pm, and you can register HERE.

Additional information on UMiD training and the Public Invitation for participation in the training can be obtained by email zorana.tovilovic@kultbih.org or phone number 033 778 765.

Support for women victims of violence: Representatives and employees of institutions, companies and organizations in BiH wore orange.

Every 25th of the month marks the Orange Day when attention is drawn to the fight against violence against women and girls. Conducted research on the presence of violence against women shows that every second woman in our country has experienced some form of violence after the age of 15. However, more than 80% of women do not report violence to the police.

Negative statistics force us to be actively involved in the fight against all forms of violence against women through the prevention and reporting of violence, education and awareness of this negative trend in our society.

Today, it is more necessary than ever to work on preventing violence, given that the statistics of non-governmental organizations that deal with the protection of victims and run the SOS hotline report that there has been a sharp increase in domestic violence and the number of applications for shelter during the virus pandemic. COVID-19.

Due to all the above, the Institute for Youth Development KULT, with the support of the Embassy of Sweden in BiH, launched the initiative I #WearOrange for..., in which representatives and employees of institutions, companies and organizations throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina on January 24 and 25 wore orange as a clear message of support and encouragement would be sent to women and girls victims of violence, and attention would be drawn to the scope and importance of addressing this problem.

The task of the entire public is primarily to get involved in the prevention of violence through education and information of children and youth, and then to prevent and adequately report the violence we are witnessing.

The Institute is grateful to the Delegation of the European Union to BiH and Ambassador Sattler, the BiH Ministry of Civil Affairs, the Agency for Gender Equality, the BiH Ministry of Human Rights and Refugees, BH Telecom, Ilidža Municipality, International Burch University, Tuzla Mechanical School, Police Officers Association and all other participants in the initiative, who together with the Institute provided support to victims at a time when we need to be more active than ever in preventing violence.

Since 2013, the KULT Institute for Youth Development has been celebrating the Orange Day with various activities and initiatives, and will continue to work on the prevention of violence against women and girls in the future.

You fight corruption when you speak up!

Unfortunately, the trend of young people leaving Bosnia and Herzegovina does not stop. Every day we witness an increasing number of departures of educated, able-bodied young people who see their future elsewhere.

There are many reasons for young people to leave, and the analysis of the results of the research on the position of young people in Bosnia and Herzegovina conducted by the Institute for Youth Development KULT showed that one of the most frequently mentioned is corruption. Fourth place on the scale of problems clearly indicates how much young people in everyday life are affected by this negative phenomenon.

Corruption has affected all areas and segments of life in Bosnia and Herzegovina, especially the area employment. Almost 90 percent of young people believe that bribery in order to get a job in public administration is a practice in BiH. society, of which almost 60 percent believe that bribery is present in most cases, while for the remaining 30 percent such practices exist but are not frequent. Over 55% of young people heard that someone from their environment paid a certain amount of money to get a job, and almost 5% of them witnessed the purchase of a job directly.

The published results should be a call for awakening and action for all government institutions, organizations and society as a whole. By strengthening the principles of the rule of law and the rule of law, transparent rules and procedures, and by reporting and prosecuting all harmful, corrupt practices, we contribute to the prevention of corruption and the improvement of BiH. society. Since September 2021, the Institute for Youth Development KULT is very active in the implementation of the initiative Say NO to Corruption in Sarajevo Canton, within which, in cooperation with the Office for Anti-Corruption and Quality Management of Sarajevo Canton works on the analysis of measures to prevent conflicts of interest Of Sarajevo Canton, and will advocate the adoption of a conflict of interest management policy for public institutions in Sarajevo Canton.

In addition, the Institute has launched a public campaign to inform citizens, especially young people, about the presence of corruption in the daily lives of citizens. As part of the campaign, it is planned to record and broadcast four television shows that should attract public attention and point out the harmfulness of corruption on the life of individuals, examine the attitudes of citizens and young people about corruption and provide basic information on fighting corruption and reporting.

As the title says, you fight corruption when you speak out, so if you have witnessed or learned about harmful and corrupt practices, report them anonymously by clicking HERE.

Call for project proposals

CIN and partners are inviting civil society organizations to submit proposals for projects to combat hate speech. The Centre for Investigative Reporting together with partners from the Reporting Diversity Network 2.0 announces a public call for project proposals on combating hate speech and better presentation of diversity.

The public call was opened as part of the Reporting Diversity Network 2.0 project, which aims to effectively influence the media presentation of ethnicity, religion and gender equality in the Western Balkans.

Reporting Diversity Network 2.0 seeks to activate the role of civil society in countering narratives that lead to divisions and replacing them with much-needed positive discourse that contributes to the values of good neighbourly relations and respect for social diversity.

The main intention of the call is to increase the efficiency of civil society organizations that cooperate with the media in order to reduce the spread of stereotypes and negative portrayal of others and different.

The specific objectives of the call are:

- strengthen the position of local civil society organizations in protecting the rights of their users in the media
- provide an opportunity for local civil society organizations to influence public opinion
- increase the number and quality of messages transmitted to the public
- improve the visibility and media presence of topics related to women's rights and the rights of minority groups
- raise awareness and contribute to the positive perception of others, tolerance and inclusion in the region

Types of activities eligible for funding (the list of activities may include other project activities as long as they contribute to the above objectives):

- a) advocacy and awareness raising campaigns
- b) media content production
- c) creating campaigns to combat hate narratives in public space

- d) creation of special websites and portals that enable citizens to give their contribution and access to information and public debates
- e) consultations, round tables and meetings with local stakeholders
- f) establishing political dialogue with stakeholders (eg political parties, local officials, local community experts, media representatives)

All project activities must be implemented in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Estimated time for project implementation is a maximum of 6 (six) months.

The total budget of the program is 27,500 euros. As envisaged by the program, the Centre for Investigative Reporting will support 5 (five) projects, while the amount of individual grants will range from 3,000 to 8,000 euros.

Civil society organizations applying to this call must meet the following criteria:

- that they are registered in accordance with the applicable legal regulations in Bosnia and Herzegovina and that they have settled all legal obligations
- have experience in the field of diversity advocacy and / or hate speech
- be directly responsible for project preparation and project management
- that the bank account of the organization is not blocked
- not to be beneficiaries of the European Commission Civil Society Facility and Media Program 2018-2019, budget lines: BGUE-B2018-22.020401 and BGUE-B2019-22.020401
- Organizations can submit only one project proposal under this program as an applicant or as a partner

Different types of civil society organizations can apply for the Public Call: grassroots organizations, members of networks of organizations operating at the national or regional level, and media established as civil society organizations.

Partnership with local media will be considered an advantage and brings additional points during the project evaluation process.

A one-day training on the rules and procedures for the implementation of EU grants will be organized for selected beneficiaries of grant funds. The training will cover topics such as: project management, visibility guidelines, financial reporting, etc.

Selected civil society organizations will be provided with mentoring support to assist in the implementation of creative media campaigns aimed at raising public awareness and managing project activities.

We invite all interested organizations to fill in application form and budget.

The deadline for submitting project proposals is February 21, 2022 by 5:00 pm to the e-mail address: mirza@cin.ba.

For all additional questions, please contact us no later than February 7, 2022.

Evaluation criteria:

- 1) relevance of the project proposal in relation to the objectives of the Public Call and relevance of the project proposal in relation to the needs of the target groups (30 points)
- 2) efficiency and feasibility of activities - clear connection and consistency between objectives, expected results, proposed activities and strategies (20 points)
- 3) financial and operational capacity for independent implementation of the proposed activity - basic level of organizational and management capacity (20 points)
- 4) influence and participation of stakeholders - project proposals must be feasible, and indicators objectively measurable (number of citizens who will be involved in the activities) (10 points)
- 5) Involvement of representatives of vulnerable groups and respect for gender equality - the project proposal must take into account the needs of vulnerable groups (5 points)
- 6) sustainability - the project proposal clearly reflects how sustainable it will be after the completion of activities (5 points)

7) budget and costs of efficiency of activities - a rational relationship between estimated costs and expected results must be satisfactory (10 points)

During the evaluation of project proposals, the Evaluation Committee will pay attention to the geographical representation and thematic diversity of grants, while respecting the principles of equal opportunities and inclusiveness.

Note: The Centre for Investigative Reporting may request additional documentation no later than eight days after receiving the project proposal.
